| Short description of the company | The Terni State Conservatoire of Music (https://www.briccialditermi.it/), located in central Italy, is named after the nineteenth-century flautist Giulio Briccialdi (1818-1881), born in Terni and famous for having perfected the modern flute mechanics by adding a key. The institution has a centuries-old tradition as a music school and is currently located in the prestigious Palazzo Giocosi-Mariani, in the city’s historic centre, which boasts several sixteenth-century frescoes in its halls. Some 55 teachers work at the Conservatoire of Terni (39 permanent positions; 16 temporary positions). The theoretical and practical teaching follows the Bologna Process approach. Classes, therefore, refer to four academic levels: (1) preliminary level; (2) bachelor degree; (3) master degree; PhD (Doctor of Philosophy (4). Seven administrators and five ushers are also members of the staff. |
